

Instructions for Building Tracking Application

pm9

November 2019

We are using the tracking app to track devices. The following are the steps to build the android application:

- Download and install Android Studio using this and Android SDK Tools from here.
- Once you have this installed, you can build application. An example can be found here.

—x—